九、Dear Li Lei,

Glad to hear from you. You said you will come to Jintan for the winter holiday. Now I am writing to tell you something about Jintan.

I think Jintan is a great place to visit. It lies in the south of Jiangsu Province, next to Changzhou and Liyang.
Its capital city is Gold Town.

People in Jintan mainly speak Wu Chinese and Mandarin Jianghuai, so it may be a bit difficult for you to communicate with the local people. But don't worry, I'll help you with it. Jintan has a small population—about 560,000. Fisheries, livestock and horticulture are their main crops. Jintan has solar new energy and new materials.
It is also famous for its garment industry.

Jintan has many festivals and fairs. Some of the fairs are celebrated almost every month.

There are some famous attractions in Jintan such as Mao Mountain, Oriental Salt Lake City, Changtang Lake.
They are all worth a visit.

I hope you will have a nice trip in Jintan this winter holiday.

Yours,
Zhang Hua

九、The Chinese writer Mo Yan was famous for getting the 2012 Nobel Prize in Literature. His true name is Guan Moye.

He was born in Weifang of Shandong in July, 1955.

He is the son of a farmer. In 1981, he began to write. He is not only a novelist but also a writer of short stories. One of his novels was made into the film Red Sorghum directed by Zhang Yimou in 1988.

His work The Frog won the Mao Dun Prize in Literature in 2011. What's more, in October, 2012, he became the first Chinese to win the Nobel Prize in Literature. Also because of this, his hometown has become/becomes the tourist attraction.

I'm proud of him. And I'll try my best to work hard to learn from him.

七、Our class made a survey on whether we need robots in our everyday life. Here is the result.

Two thirds of us think we need robots, because they can help us with lots of everyday jobs and they can make life easier. But one third of us think we don't need to have robots. They say robots cost too much and they can cause some unexpected problems. They also think robots can make people lazy and go wrong easily.

I think that a robot can help with housework and make it possible for us to spend more time on something more important and exciting. So I would get a robot if possible.

All kids want to be good at learning. However, it's not easy. In my opinion, those kids who are good at learning are able to manage their time very well. They not only work hard at their subjects but also enjoy playing games. Playing also helps them learn better.

As to how kids balance learning and playing, the most important thing is to follow the rule—work while you work and play while you play. Moreover, kids should learn to work happily and relax totally.

I'm sure a good balance between learning and playing can make a great contribution to kids' growth.

Since creating the civilized city and countryside, all the people in Suqian have made joint efforts. Their good behaviour can be seen everywhere.

As junior students, we have also made some contributions to the civilized Suqian. For example, to protect our environment, we plant flowers and trees. Also, for our own and others' safety, we obey the traffic rules and never run red lights. In addition, we no longer talk or laugh loudly in public. What's more, when on a bus, we actively give our seats to the people in need.

Besides, we have formed a good habit of throwing rubbish into a dustbin, never littering anywhere. Furthermore, we are accustomed to queuing up for tickets or something else.

All in all, we will try our best to do what we can to make ourselves and Suqian city more civilized.

I think it is full of positive energy.

It tells a story about a father and two daughters. In the film, the father wants to realize his world champion dream by training his two daughters hard. At first, the two girls don't agree. However, their father is very strict with them. They finally make a big success.

After the film, many people discuss whether parents should decide their children's future.

I suggest our parents should guide us to choose our own life. When we have difficulty making decisions, they should give us wiser advice.
