Save our earth

Nowadays, it seems that there are more natural disasters than ever before. What causes so many disasters?

I think it is people who sometimes cause some disasters. Because of people, there is more and more pollution. And some kinds of animals are dying out. At the same time, there are more natural disasters. We have only one earth. It's everyone's duty to protect it. People should stop polluting the environment and protect nature.

Let's make the earth a better place to live in together!
